

Geoffrey Dean, he/him/his

Faith Tradition: Christianity

“I am blessed to be part of the Spirituality Network. As a listener, a learner, and a reflective thinker I believe I am a good fit for the mission and work of the Spirituality Network.”

Geoffrey is a long time resident of Columbus. He earned a bachelor’s degree from Marietta College, an MBA from Capital University and holds a CPA certificate from the state of Ohio. He spent his career in accounting, financial management and insurance providing an opportunity to learn and explore many industries. He is active with the Kelton House Museum and Garden serving as a docent. His other interests include a love of historical architecture, touring historical homes and bicycling especially around the state of Ohio.
